

VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY

VCU L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs

2017 Summer Basic Jailor Academy

The Henrico County Sheriff's Office, in collaboration with the L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs at Virginia Commonwealth University, will offer students the opportunity to attend a Summer Basic Jailor Academy. The academy allows students to earn college credits while simultaneously earning certification as a correctional deputy through the Department of Criminal Justice Services. Upon successful completion of the program, graduates will be eligible for part-time employment in Henrico's Sheriff's offices.

Students must register in CRJS 406, "Issues in Short Term Detention," as a condition of their participation and are expected to attend the academy which will take place from June 1st through July 31st, 2017. The Henrico County Student Basic Jailor Academy will be held in Henrico County at the Henrico Public Safety Training Center located at 4301 E Parham Road, Henrico VA 23228.

Eligibility

- Rising junior or senior-level students who are currently enrolled at VCU
- Students should have a minimum GPA of 2.7 and be in good academic standing
- Completion of CRJS 181, "Introduction to Criminal Justice" and CRJS 253, "Introduction to Corrections," is required
- Preference will be given to students with declared majors in Criminal Justice
- Students must be at least 18 years of age, be a US citizen and should pass a criminal history records check

Application Process

Step 1: Rising junior or senior-level students currently enrolled at VCU should complete an initial interest application form (see below) and return form to the Office of Student Success (923 W. Franklin St. room 405). Applications are due by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 31, 2017.

Step 2: CRJS Faculty will review all students' initial applications for eligibility on the basis of junior/senior level status, academic performance, major and GPA. Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis. Preference will be given to students majoring in Criminal Justice.

Step 3: Once CRJS Faculty have approved the list of students who have met the academic criteria outlined above, the list of candidates for Henrico County Sheriff's Academy will be forwarded to the Sheriff's Office for the next steps in the screening process, which include a background check, criminal records check, polygraph and physical exam. The Henrico County Sheriff's Office is responsible for these steps. Successful candidates will be offered a place in Henrico County's Summer Basic Jailor Academy.

Step 4: Once officially accepted into the Summer Academy, students must register for CRJS 406 (required online summer course, "Jails and Issues in Short-Term Detention," which will be taught fully online and will run approximately the same dates as the Academy). Students may also choose to register for an additional 6 GVPA internship credits (visit the Wilder School internship page for more information).
